December 29th, 1932.

Dear Governor Roosevelt,

I am a boy eighteen years old and have for four years worked as a page in the Supreme Court of the United States. I am now employed at the American Red Cross.

In my spare time at the Capitol I collected autographs and I am very anxious to have yours. My collection includes that of your distinguished cousin, Theodore Roosevelt, as well as those of every President that has followed him, and yours, sir, will bring me up to date, or, rather, will put me a little ahead.

I realize that you must receive many letters asking for your signature but I do hope that you will do me the great honor of complying with this request. I have already the autograph of Speaker Garner, whom I know, as I am a native Texan and a good Democrat.

I shall look forward to seeing you in Washington, although you, perhaps, will not see me.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

Austin Cunningham
